Re: Letters to the Executive Office of the President re Ukraine Security Assistance

Dear Mr. Armstrong:

Your letters to Acting Chief of Staff Mick Mulvaney and Counsel to the President Pat Cipollone, dated December 10, 2019, and November 25, 2019, seek factual information and legal views from the Executive Office of the President regarding Ukraine Security Assistance. You are in possession of the letter from the General Counsel of OMB, dated December 11, 2019, which addresses the questions in your letters. The White House does not plan to respond separately to your letters.

Sincerely,

Brian D. Miller
Senior Associate Counsel to the President
