

117TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. _____

To establish a comprehensive United States Government initiative to build the capacity of young leaders and entrepreneurs in Africa, and for other purposes.

---

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

---

Mr. VAN HOLLEN (for himself and Mr. ROUNDS) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on

---

A BILL

To establish a comprehensive United States Government initiative to build the capacity of young leaders and entrepreneurs in Africa, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLES.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Young African Leaders 5 Initiative Act of 2021” or “YALI Act of 2021”.

6 SEC. 2. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

7 It is the sense of Congress that—

1           (1) the Young African Leaders Initiative, 2           launched in 2010, is a signature effort to invest in 3           the next generation of African leaders;

4           (2) Africa is a continent of strategic importance
5           and it is vital for the United States to support 6           strong and enduring partnerships with the next gen-7           eration of African leaders; and

8           (3) the United States Government should 9           prioritize investments to build the capacity of emerg-10          ing young African leaders in sub-Saharan Africa, in-11          cluding through efforts to enhance leadership skills, 12          encourage entrepreneurship, strengthen public ad-
13          ministration and the role of civil society, and connect 14          young African leaders continentally and globally
15          across the private, civic, and public sectors.

16 SEC. 3. YOUNG AFRICAN LEADERS INITIATIVE PROGRAM.

17          (a) IN GENERAL.—There is established in the De-
18          partment of State the Young African Leaders Initiative
19          Program (referred to in this Act as the “YALI Pro-20          gram”).

21          (b) PURPOSE.—The YALI Program shall seek to 22          build the capacity of young African leaders in sub-Saharan 23          Africa in the areas of business, civic engagement, or public 24          administration, including through efforts—

1           (1) to support young African leaders by offering 2           professional development, training, and networking
3           opportunities, particularly in the areas of leadership, 4           innovation, civic engagement, elections, human 5           rights, entrepreneurship, good governance, and pub-6           lic administration; and 7           (2) to provide increased economic and technical 8           assistance to young African leaders to promote eco-9           nomic growth and strengthen ties between United 10          States and African businesses.

11          (c) FELLOWSHIPS.—The YALI Program shall award
12          fellowships through the Mandela Washington Fellowship 13          for Young African Leaders Program to young African 14          leaders who—

15               (1) are between 18 and 35 years of age;

16               (2) have demonstrated strong capabilities in en-
17          trepreneurship, innovation, public service, and lead-18          ership; and

19               (3) have had a positive impact in their commu-
20          nities, organizations, or institutions.

21          (d) REGIONAL LEADERSHIP CENTERS.—The YALI
22          Program shall seek to establish regional leadership centers 23          in sub-Saharan Africa to offer training to young African 24          leaders who—

25               (1) are between 18 and 35 years of age;

1           (2) have demonstrated strong capabilities in en-
2           trepreneurship, innovation, public service and leader-3           ship; and

4           (3) have had a positive impact in their commu-
5           nities, organizations, or institutions.

6           (e) ACTIVITIES.—

7           (1) UNITED STATES-BASED ACTIVITIES.—The 8           Secretary of State, in coordination with the Admin-
9           istrator of the United States Agency for Inter-10          national Development and the heads of other rel-
11          evant Federal departments and agencies, shall over-12          see all United States-based activities carried out
13          under the YALI Program, including the participa-14          tion of Mandela Washington fellows in—

15                (A) a 6-week leadership institute at a 16                United States university or college in business, 17                civic engagement, or public management, in-18                cluding academic sessions, site visits, profes-
19                sional networking opportunities, leadership 20                training, community service, and organized cul-21                tural activities; and

22                (B) an annual Mandela Washington Fel-
23                lowship Summit to provide such fellows the op-
24                portunity to meet with United States leaders 25                from the private, public, and nonprofit sectors.

1           (2) AFRICA-BASED ACTIVITIES.—The Secretary
2 of State, in coordination with the Administrator of 3 the United States Agency for International Develop-4 ment and the heads of other relevant Federal de-5 partments and agencies, should continue to support
6 existing Young African Leaders Initiative programs
7 in sub-Saharan Africa, including—

8           (A) access to continued leadership training 9 and other professional development opportuni-10 ties for Mandela Washington Fellowship for 11 Young African Leaders alumni upon their re-
12 turn to their home countries, including online 13 courses, technical assistance, and access to 14 funding;

15           (B) training for young African leaders at 16 regional leadership centers established in ac-17 cordance with subsection (d), and through on-18 line and in-person courses offered by such cen-19 ters; and

20           (C) opportunities for networking and en-21 gagement with—

22           (i) other alumni of the Mandela
23 Washington Fellowship for Young African 24 Leaders;

1                   (ii) alumni of programs at regional 2                   leadership centers established in accord-3                   ance with subsection (d); and

4                   (iii) United States and like-minded 5                   diplomatic missions, business leaders, and 6                   others, as appropriate.

7           (3) IMPLEMENTATION.—The Secretary of 8           State, in coordination with the Administrator of the 9           United States Agency for International Development
10          and the heads of other relevant Federal departments 11          and agencies, shall seek to partner with the private 12          sector to pursue public-private partnerships, leverage 13          private sector expertise, expand networking opportu-
14          nities, and identify funding opportunities and fellow-15          ship and employment opportunities for participants
16          in the YALI Program.

17          (f) IMPLEMENTATION PLAN.—Not later than 180
18          days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Sec-19          retary of State, in coordination with the Administrator of 20          the United States Agency for International Development 21          and the heads of other relevant Federal departments and 22          agencies, shall submit a plan to the appropriate congres-23          sional committees for implementing the YALI Program, 24          which plan shall include—

1           (1) a description of clearly defined program
2 goals, targets, and planned outcomes for each year
3 and for the duration of implementation of the YALI
4 Program;

5           (2) a strategy to monitor and evaluate the 6 YALI Program and progress made toward achieving 7 such goals, targets, and planned outcomes; and

8           (3) a strategy to ensure that the YALI Pro-
9 gram is promoting United States foreign policy goals
10 in Africa, including ensuring that the YALI Pro-
11 gram is clearly branded and paired with robust pub-
12 lic diplomacy efforts.

13       (g) REPORT.—Not later than 1 year after the date 14 of the enactment of this Act, and annually thereafter for 15 the following 5 years, the Secretary of State, in coordina-
16 tion with the Administrator of the United States Agency
17 for International Development, shall submit to the appro-
18 priate congressional committees and publish in a publicly 19 accessible, internet-based form, a report that contains—

20           (1) a description of the progress made toward 21 achieving the goals, targets, and planned outcomes
22 described in subsection (f)(1), including an overview 23 of the implementation of the YALI Program during 24 the previous year and an estimated number of YALI
25 Program beneficiaries during such year;

1           (2) an assessment of how the YALI Program is 2           contributing to and promoting United States-Africa
3           relations, particularly in areas of increased private 4           sector investment, trade promotion, support to civil 5           society, improved public administration, and fos-
6           tering entrepreneurship and youth empowerment; 7           and

8           (3) recommendations for improvements or 9           changes to the YALI Program and implementation 10          plan, if any, that would improve its effectiveness 11          during subsequent years of implementation of the 12          YALI Program.

13          (h) DEFINED TERM.—In this section, the term “ap-14          propriate congressional committees” means—

15               (1) the Committee on Foreign Relations of the 16               Senate;

17               (2) the Committee on Appropriations of the 18               Senate;

19               (3) the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the 20               House of Representatives; and

21               (4) the Committee on Appropriations of the 22               House of Representatives.

23          (i) SUNSET.—The YALI Program shall terminate on 24          the date that is 5 years after the date of the enactment 25          of this Act.
